We are all headed in some certain direction. Even though you may not notice, it's happening. There is an unconscious drive within us all. This book may reveal it and you may rejoice or see a different side to yourself. But whatever is found, it will be you.

Some people were friendly, others were not. Some were apathetic, others were active. Many enjoyed the activities of school life while many endured boredom. Some strayed away from the outward challenges of education while others were caught up in the desire to learn. The school offered excitement, action, and knowledge for some to accept, and others to reject.

Days went by, weeks went on,
and seasons changed. During all of those time changes
people struggled to get along.
There seemed to be too many different interests, but through all this we found friends and had some good times.

homecoming 1972

The weekend of October 6 and 7 was early for a homecoming, but hard work made "Saturday in the Park" a success. Diane Patterson was crowned queen during a pre-game ceremony. The game on Friday was disappointing, because a quick score wasn't enough for a win. The activities come to a close with the dance on Saturday night. Everyone enjoyed himself and then Homecoming 1972 was but a fond memory.

the spirit of christmas past

On December 16, 1972, it was proved that the Christmas Dance was not dead as "The Spirit of Christmas Past" was surprisingly successful. The privilege of being included in the Queen's court was given to underclass girls for the first time. Maureen Grogan reigned as Queen.

John Pappas, a sophomore, was one of 12 winners of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary Americanism and Government Test. With this honor, John was awarded a trip to Washington D.C. for an eight day tour of our nation's capital.

John Pappas

Dave Gaynor, Jane Layman, Valerie Van Wormer and Pam Schulz were chosen to participate in the City of Toledo Student Government Day.

Robin Plantz

The Make It Yourself With Wool Competition is an annual contest sponsored by the American Wool Association. The junior division winner this year was Robin Plantz, a Start Junior. Robin's entry was a pair of red baggy slacks and a red, green, and white belted coat with a white fox fur collar.

senior prom

At last after four long years. The biggest dance of high school days. Everyone saved his best date for that big night and following morning. No matter what people did — danced, ate, bowled, partied — it was all fun.

commencement

Four years that once seemed never-ending now have flashed by. All four years led up to one day. It is all over, but what is next? That is a question we can only answer for ourselves.

Bruce Butler — Turnabout King

The 1973 Turnabout gave Start High gals their big chance to take out a favorite guy. The change did not upset the aura of the evening — "Lollipops & Roses." Bruce Butler also got his big chance too, when he was elected King.

Ryan and Breier were 1st team All-City and 1st team All-Sectionals, while Breier was also 2nd team All-District. Mitchell was 2nd team All-City. Ryan was voted Most Valuable, and Tim Schue won the Scholastic Award. A second place finish by the J.V.'s adds hope for a future City Championship in Cross Country Disappointing was the only way to describe the 1973 basketball season. A 7-12 season was partially due to injuries and illness. The 1972 graduation left Coach Bushong with only 4 lettermen to work with. The Spartans finished second in their own Holiday Tournament. Terry Snyder was voted to 2nd team All-City, while Greg Kornowa and Bill Gleason received Honorable Mention.

[illegible]

The tears flow from my eyes
 As a rippling stream.
 Desperation takes over my heart
 And I feel nothing but loneliness.
 My life . . . is almost empty.
 No, love
 Little hope,
 All is lost.
 My mind is a vast wasteland . . .
 Dry of feeling and need,
 There is no understanding.
 My soul is deserted.
 There is nothing left.
 Unless my hope is restored,
 My mind will cripple
 As a withering leaf.

the chapel

In a quiet glen, in a forest green
 An enchanted chapel stands.
 The woodfolk flock to this house of prayer
 On the early Sabbath morn.
 The choir raises an anthem fair
 To their Master in heaven above.
 The Lord looks down, smiling and pleased,
 And the sun shines with His love.

Wisdom is written with chalk on the board
and wiped away to make room for more words
over and over again we . . .
write and erase
write and erase
write and erase.
and when we die, we are put in the ground and remain on the earth as it . .
turns and
turns and
turns.

Just like the chalk that has been wiped away,
and the homes torn by grief
of their daddys who've been killed by senseless war,

Just like Martin Luther King and Adolf Hitler
Dinosaurs and fiery dragons,
everything turns to dust
. . . it is memory that lives on and on and on.

to all empty people

Involvement.
It's not good.
Stay Cool.

You can keep yourself
within the limits
of your blinding sunshine
cushions.

No one
will touch you.

However . . .
without involvement
lies shallowness,
even hollowness.
You'll find
a series of somethings
becoming nothings.

You may be hurt
when you
open your soul,
the joys and realities
of living

which makes the pain minute.

it looks wonderful
It looks so wonderful,
the snow blackened
by car exhaust.
It looks so wonderful,
men dying on the battlefield.
It looks so wonderful,

running across
our country.
It looks so wonderful,
the forest without
any trees.
If we had another chance,
would it be so wonderful?

the world of nature
The beautiful leaves of the trees,
And the hum of lively bees,
All make up the world of nature.

Though mountain's the tallest,
The amoeba the smallest They all belong to the world of nature.

Animals with fur, wild and tame,
They're all part of the nature game.
These and others make up the world
of nature.

But we won't have them long,
For the world went wrong.
The world of nature may leave us.

The people of the nation
Could care less about conservation.
And the world of nature may soon
leave us.

Maybe someday
We'll run away together.
We won't tell anyone.
I wonder if they'll miss us;
even more, if we'll miss them.
Perhaps we couldn't make it
living alone
without all the ugly things that makes us need each other more.
Maybe it would be too fantastic,
without confusion,
that we'd become confused.
Maybe we would drown in our love,
but then,
I can think of no more serenely exciting way to dissolve.

You have reached a milestone in your life and now you are moving on, looking to the future.

At Owens-Corning, we too are looking to the future. There are already over 30,000 uses for Fiberglas* products from tire cord to insulation to sports equipment. Even fire-safe textiles for space suits. And we are continuously working to find new ways for Fiberglas materials to improve daily life.

For you, like for us, the future is full of opportunities. To see if your career can grow and prosper at Owens-Corning, write to us: Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation, Personnel Department, Fiberglas Tower, Toledo, Ohio 43659. Perhaps we can move on to the future together!

in memoriam
 paul beroth

Many thanks to Western Publishing Co. and Mr. Jack Landry, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paul Kenney, Mrs. Edgar Johns, Miss Kit Hardy. Also to be thanked are Buckeye News, Toledo Museum of Art, Mr. St. John, the Faculty and administration, and especially Mrs. Habib the Advisor.

How do you thank people for giving you a way of life? That's what this book has become so much a part of me. I wouldn't know a life without them. Thank you Mr. St. John for your knowledge of yearbooks. We would have been lost without you. Mrs. H., I really don't think being married has made you a nag. If ever a staff needed nagging, we do! I'll never forget this staff. You are all special people.
